1. RAPE

	A Guide to the Combating of Rape Act GUIDE: This guide gives a clear and comprehensive explanation of the Combating of Rape Act. It includes what situations are now defined as rape, where to report a rape and what evidence needs to be collected. New court procedures designed to make the trial less stressful and the impact of the crime on the complainant in the longer term are also discussed. This detailed guide is aimed at service providers.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero Damara-Nama Rukwangali Silozi A4, 44 pages
	Pocket Guide: Combating of Rape Act PAMPHLET: This small gatefold pamphlet explains briefly the meaning of rape, what someone who is raped should do to safeguard evidence, where they should go to report the rape and what medical help they need. It also lists the special steps which can be taken during a rape trial to minimize the trauma for the rape victim. This pamphlet is suitable for the general public.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero A4 gatefold
	Basic Facts on the Combating of Rape Act FACTSHEET OR POSTER: The poster briefly lists details of what rape is, what actions someone who is raped should take and what medical treatment is available to try to prevent pregnancy or the risk of serious infection as a result of the rape.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo A4 or A3, 1 page
	What to Do if You Are Raped BOOKLET: This booklet gives a comprehensive definition of rape, when and where to report the rape, what evidence should be collected and by whom, the need for medical examination with appropriate treatment and advice about giving a statement to the police. This short booklet is suitable for the general public.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero A5, 12 pages
	Bail in Cases of Rape and Domestic Violence BOOKLET: This booklet explains what bail is, why people accused of certain crimes are allowed back into the community while they await trial and what conditions the accused must follow while on bail. It also gives guidance on what complainants can do if they feel threatened or in danger from the accused while he is out on bail. This short booklet is suitable for the general public.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero A5, 12 pages

	Withdrawing a Rape Case: Are You Making the Right Decision? BOOKLET: This booklet deals with the various problems and pressures women experience which lead them to withdraw rape cases, contrasting these with positive reasons for continuing to press charges together with reassurances about the court experience. This short booklet is suitable for the general public.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero A5, 8 pages
	A Rape Complainant's Guide to Being a Witness in Court BOOKLET: This booklet is designed to prepare a rape victim for the experience of giving evidence in court. It explains what special provisions are available to make the experience less daunting, the roles of the lawyers and others involved and how to seek counselling support if the process leaves the victim disturbed. This short booklet is suitable for the general public.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero A5, 20 pages
	Guidelines for Service Providers on the Combating of Rape Act GUIDELINES: These guidelines aim to set a standard for a consistent and sensitive professional response to rape. They were drafted by members of the relevant professions after extensive consultations with stakeholders who deal directly with rape complainants and members of the public and so are genuinely representative of the concerns and needs of those who experience rape. The guidelines are for service providers.	English A4, 63 pages
	Training Guide for Prosecutors on the Combating of Rape Act 2000 (DVD) TRAINING GUIDE: This DVD is designed to help prosecutors understand the Combating of Rape Act.	English Running time: 55:50

	Rape in Marriage COMIC: This comic concerns a couple whose relationship has deteriorated since their marriage. After a disagreement, the husband rapes his wife and storms out of the house. The story follows his wife as she reports the rape, has the required examination to gather evidence for a trial and receives treatment to prevent possible HIV infection. It explains the subsequent court processes and special rules put in place to make the trial less distressing for the victim.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo A4, 8 pages
	Rape: Should you withdraw a rape case? COMIC: Sarah, a teenage girl, is raped by her brother's friend. The comic traces her progress as she reports the rape and goes to the hospital for help and treatment. She is then pressed by her family to withdraw the case. The pros and cons of continuing the court process are explored.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo A4, 8 pages
	Bail in rape cases COMIC: Gabriel is absent from an office meeting when someone is raped nearby, and he is arrested as a suspect. The comic describes his application for bail, the bail conditions he must comply with and the eventual outcome of the trial.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo A4, 8 pages
	"If you really loved me": The problem of date rape COMIC: Two sisters experience very different situations when their dates ask them to have sex –in one story, the guy does not take no for an answer and pressurises the sister; in the other story, the guy agrees that he is not ready to have sex either and they agree to wait. The comic provides information on what to do if you have been raped.	English A4, 8 pages
	Rape in Namibia: An Assessment of the Operation of the Combating of Rape Act 8 of 2000 - Full Report and Summary (2006) RESEARCH REPORT: This extensive research report provides a comprehensive review of the operation of the Combating of Rape Act through an examination of national police statistics on rape, plus a sample of rape cases which originated during 2000-2005, to see how the Act is working in practice. A shorter summary report is also available. This report is aimed at service providers, stakeholders and researchers.	English Full report: N$100 A4, 591 pages Summary report: N$50 A4, 110 pages

	Withdrawn: Why complainants withdraw rape cases in Namibia (2009) RESEARCH REPORT: This study follows from the Rape in Namibia study, which found that complainants requested withdrawals in more than one-third of rape cases. This qualitative study explores the reasons for rape case withdrawals in more detail and provides recommendations which could respond to some of the issues raised. The report is aimed at service providers, stakeholders and researchers.	English Price N$50 A4, 146 pages

	The links between HIV and GBV COMIC: Martha's sister is worried about her. Her husband Simon is abusing her and having unprotected sex with other woman. Her sister encourages her to visit a clinic. At the clinic she gets pregnancy and HIV tests. The nurse explains to her what anti-retroviral medication is and how she can protect her unborn child if she is HIV positive.	English Damara>Nama Oshiwambo A4, 8 pages
	The links between HIV and GBV POSTER: The comic described above has been adapted into a poster or factsheet. (It can also be published as a double-spread newspaper feature.)	English Damara>Nama A1 poster
	Whispers in the Wind FILM: This film is the story of a Namibian family which experiences both serious and subtle forms of domestic violence. The step-father, a long-distance truck driver, subjects his wife and two children to many different forms of domestic violence. The film ties the theme of domestic violence to the issues of child abuse and HIV/AIDS in a strong and suspenseful drama with a musical score by well-known Namibian artists Elemotho, Sasha Olivier-Sampson and others.	English (DVD) N$80 running time: 1:15:59
	Love and Respect FILM: This is a film about relationships in Namibia. The story centres around two couples. In one relationship, the male partner is jealous of one of his girlfriend's work colleagues. The story progresses to show the girlfriend being harassed by the work colleague and nearly raped – along with her boyfriend's response. In the second relationship, the male partner's unemployment becomes a catalyst for domestic violence. The culmination of the abuse is when he forces his girlfriend to shoplift, with drastic consequences. The outcome shocks him into confronting the problems in their relationship. The aim of the film is to show that a number of factors – including the presence or absence of love and respect in relationships – are important to reduce gender-based violence and prevent misunderstandings in relationships.	English (DVD) N$80 Afrikaans Otjiherero Oshiwambo Nama/Damara (VHS) running time: 46:29
	In die Familie (In the Family) RADIO SERIES: A 10-part soap-opera style series of 12-minute episodes touching on issues of domestic violence and child abuse.	Afrikaans Damara>Nama Oshiwambo Otjiherero

	Manual for Training Community Survivor Supporters (2007) TRAINING MANUAL: This training programme for community survivor supporters aims to enhance the effectiveness of those community members identified by their communities and trained as supporters. The training manual discussed the psychosocial elements of support work, basic counselling skills, assertiveness, the definition of gender and how gender stereotyping contributes to violence. The manual also covers the legislative framework in Namibia that protects the rights of all survivors of abuse. It was prepared by the Legal Assistance Centre for the Ministry of Health and Social Services.	English Available electronically. Print copies should be obtained from MoHSS. A4, 160 pages
	Addressing Gender-Based Violence through Community Empowerment (2008) TRAINING MANUAL: This magazine-style booklet provides a report on nationwide consultations on gender-based violence conducted by the Legal Assistance Centre. The magazine gives examples of what different communities are doing to address this problem, as well as giving suggestions for activities and providing information about the law on gender-based violence. The magazine contains pages on domestic violence, rape, equality in marriage, parent-child relationships, elder abuse, alcohol and witchcraft. The magazine can be used by trainers to facilitate discussions and activities with community members. The magazine is also suitable for the general public.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero A4, 29 pages
	Stalking: Proposed New Legislation for Namibia (Monograph No. 3) (2008) MONOGRAPH: This report assesses the need for legislation on stalking in Namibia. It describes the current legal protections available and provides a review of international law on stalking.	English Price N$20 A4, 60 pages A shorter research brief is also available.
	Stalking (2016) RESEARCH BRIEF: The Legal Assistance Centre has summarised key information from the detailed monograph on this topic into a more concise research brief, intended for use by policymakers and stakeholders.	English A4, 4 pages

	Trafficking in Persons (2018) BOOKLET: A decade ago, people tended to think of trafficking in persons – also referred to as human trafficking or modern slavery – as primarily involving women trafficked from a poor country into an affluent country for sexual exploitation. Today, there is a greater awareness about the diversity of trafficking (which affects women, men and children) and the various ways in which victims may be exploited (such as for work, sex or forced marriage). Also, there are increasing reports of domestic trafficking –reminding us that trafficking may take place within a single country, including the victim’s own, and does not require the crossing of an international border.	English A4, 32 pages
	What is Trafficking in Persons? COMIC: Both adults and children can be victims of trafficking. The story in the comic involves child trafficking and is based on actual trafficking cases in Namibia.	English A4, 8 pages

4. MAINTENANCE

	How to claim child maintenance COMIC: Maria, a single mother, cannot afford to buy food for her child. When she sees a poster about maintenance she decides to apply to the court for a maintenance order. The comic follows Maria through the application process.	English A4, 8 pages
	What to do if someone stops paying maintenance COMIC: John has stopped paying maintenance for his son Sam even though there is a maintenance order in place. Sarah, Sam's mother, reports this to the court and the Maintenance Officer investigates the case. We discover why John thought he could stop paying and the solution the Magistrate decides on.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero A4, 8 pages
	What to do if someone stops paying maintenance ANIMATION: The comic story on what to do if someone stops paying maintenance has been converted into a short 2-3 minute animation.	English On CD

	Can a child claim maintenance? FACTSHEET OR POSTER: This comic-style factsheet explains that a child can make an application for a maintenance order without the assistance of an adult.	English A4 or A3, 1 page
	Can I claim maintenance if the father of my child is not working? FACTSHEET OR POSTER: This comic-style factsheet explains that a mother (or anyone else caring for the child or who has the interests of the child in mind) can apply for a maintenance order even if the child's parent is unemployed as money is not the only form of maintenance support that the court can order.	English Available only in electronic version. A4 or A3, 1 page
	How to claim maintenance during pregnancy FACTSHEET OR POSTER: This comic-style fact sheet explains that a mother may claim maintenance whilst she is pregnant for pregnancy and birth-related expenses.	English A4 or A3, 1 page
	Maintenance Matters FILM: The film centres around the activities of a fictional maintenance court. The central character is a maintenance officer who takes us through her daily life as she meets clients from all walks of life. The film is intended to be an entertaining drama whilst educating the public about problems that are commonly experienced when applying for maintenance. The underlying message is the need to focus on the needs of the children in question, rather than on the disputes between parents.	English Afrikaans Oshiwambo Otjiherero running time: 48 minutes
	Maintenance shorts FILM SHORTS: These short “advertisement-length” vignettes are aimed at encouraging fathers to take responsibility for their children. Some are poignant, whilst others use humour to get the message across (such as the one about Mr Super-Cool-and-Loving, whose actions eventually catch up with him). They are suitable for broadcast on television between regularly-scheduled programming, or for use to spark workshop discussions.	English Currently available on VHS. Conversion to DVD possible. running time: 2-6 minutes each

	Maintenance Matters: An Assessment of the Operation of Namibia's Maintenance Act 9 of 2003 (2013) RESEARCH REPORT: This study covers the background to the Maintenance Act and presents the findings of extensive field research on maintenance orders. 	Communications Act 8 of 2009: Is the collection and retention of data on telecommunications users constitutional? (June 2021) RESEARCH BRIEF: Telecommunications networks collect and generate an enormous amount of data that can reveal the identity of users as well as detailed profiles of their communications activity. Namibia is about to join the ranks of an increasing number of States that require the retention and organisation of such data for later access by law enforcement officials. This kind of data can be very helpful in preventing and combating crime, but also involves an invasion of privacy and the potential for abuse. This research brief points to some possible constitutional problems with the Namibian scheme, based on European Union cases and findings of unconstitutionality in India and South Africa.	English A4, 22 pages
	Vaccine Mandates (September 2021) RESEARCH BRIEF: The term “vaccine mandates” refers to rules imposed by law or by private entities requiring vaccinations as a condition for employment, entry into certain places or participation in specific activities. This paper looks at the Namibian legal context for vaccine mandates as well as court cases on this topic in other jurisdictions. Note that this is a rapidly evolving area of law where new developments are expected.	English A4, 18 pages

	Learn about the Law: Statute Summaries (Part 1) (2021) BOOKLET: This is a booklet containing short and simple summaries of some key statutes that affect many members of the public. Each summary discusses the main topics covered by each statute, along with some background information and commentary.
