Consultation with Civil Society - Mid-Year Budget Review

The Institute for Public Policy Research (IPPR) and the Civil Society Information Centre (CIVIC +264) would like to invite you to attend an online consultation with the Minister of Finance, Hon. lipumbu Shiimi, regarding priorities for the 2021/22 Mid-Year Budget Review.

The Mid-Year Budget Review is likely to be tabled in the National Assembly in October. The Minister is expected to provide an update on the progress of the 2021/22 budget tabled on 17 March this year. He is also expected to propose re-allocations in budgeted expenditure in view of changing priorities and the latest economic outlook.

The consultation will take place on Friday September 10 at 14h30 for approximately an hour. Please confirm your participation in the consultation by responding to this email or emailing Ndeshi Fikameni at info@ippr.org.na

Once you have confirmed we will send the registration details for the Microsoft Teams online meeting.

Yours sincerely,
